Celebrate the N.P.S. Centennial! Washington Inauguration Event

Friday, April 29, 2016
10 a.m. - 3:15 p.m.

On April 30, 1789, George Washington became the first president of the United States of America. The National Park Service (NPS) is celebrating that momentous occasion, and the centennial year of the National Park Service, with a day of special programming.

10 a.m. - An NPS ranger will conduct a program “The Critical Years: 1783-1789” in the Zenger Gallery.

10:45 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. - Washington re-enactor Mike Grillo will perform a “Meet and greet with George Washington” in the Zenger Gallery.

11:45 a.m. - Representatives of the St. Johns Lodge #1 of the Masons will conduct a re-enactment of George Washington’s inauguration in the rotunda.

1:30 p.m. - In the Zenger Gallery, a reenactor portraying Phillis Wheatley, the noted 18th Century African-American poet, will discuss her poetry and life.

1:15 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. - A National Park Service reenactment of Washington’s inauguration will be conducted in the rotunda.

10 a.m. to 3 p.m. - The Old Barracks Fifes & Drums will perform 18th-century music between on the steps of Federal Hall.

Children are invited to receive a Junior Ranger Badge at the Visitor Center.

Follow in Washington’s footsteps with the self-guided walking tour “Washington’s New York.” Pick up a copy of the guide at the Visitor Center.
